MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director
Special Operations

1. On 2 April 1952 during a conversation with the undersigned and Mr. SCHILLER the latter stated that Generals SPEIDEL and HEUNSINGER were interested in coming to the United States. SCHILLER went on to discuss his contacts with these Generals as well as General Von GEHLEN. He did not infer that they were in the same organization but emphasized their close political ties with SCHUMACHER.

2. In response to the above, the DCI stated that he would be very pleased to invite SPEIDEL and HEUNSINGER to Washington and asked the undersigned to "look into it".

3. This memorandum of record is submitted for your information and action.
